

SHYP

Supportive Housing
for Young Parents

shyp@whynotcitymissions.com

226-250-0107

Welcome Home

Supportive Housing for Young Parents (SHYP) is right here in Brantford. If you are ages 16-25 and pregnant or parenting a new baby, maybe we can help.

We Provide:

- Prenatal & Parenting Classes & Support. Get advice from a registered nurse at our weekly well-baby clinic
- Life Skills Development
- Self-Care & Mental Wellness including therapy and group discussions.
- Education: Finish high school right here at home with the help of a certified teacher on site
- Personal Growth Opportunities
- Access to Supports 24/7 while you learn how to be the best parent you can be

Who Can Apply?

Young mothers aged 16-25, parenting or preparing to parent newborns to toddlers up to the age of two.

How Long Is The Program?

Length may vary but generally, you can stay about one year from the birth of your child.

Where Can I Find More Information?

Visit whynotcitymissions.com/shyp to learn more and apply.

